ART UNIT 2872

Art Unit: 2872

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. John E. Gunther on 07/12/2005.

3. The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 39, line 2, the language --nonreciprocal optical-- has been inserted before "device".

In claim 39, line 9, the language "the polarization" has been changed to read --a polarization state--.

In claim 39, line 11, the language "thereto" has been changed to read --to the second port--.

In claim 39, line 13, the language "thereto" has been changed to read --to the fourth port--.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest a nonreciprocal optical element comprising circulator means for routing a first signal from a first port to a second port and a second signal from the second port to a third port, a third signal from the third port to a fourth port and a fourth signal from the fourth port to the first port; first reflective means for reflecting a signal output by the second port back into the second port; second reflective means for reflecting a signal output by the fourth port back into the fourth port; first control means for adjusting the phase of the signal output from the second port by adjusting the position of the first reflective means relative to the second port; second control means, independent of said first control means for adjusting the phase of the signal output from the fourth port by adjusting the position of the second reflective means relative to the fourth port and a first polarization rotation element between the second port and the first reflective means, as recited in claim 1, lines 2 to 15.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
